The Parks and Recreation suggestions for upgrades to the Veterans Memorial Park discussion was tabled until next Board meeting.

Treasurer Jamie Allman and Trustee Lancy reviewed the Time Warner Franchise agreement Renegotiations with the Board. Treasurer Allman reviewed the steps of the negotiation and the efforts necessary to obtain a response from Time Warner. They had requested a response by August and just received a new contract from Time Warner. Although they were happy with most of the contract they felt further negotiations were necessary related the franchise fee percentage. The Mayor suggested they give Time Warner a week to respond to the further demands.

Treasurer Jamie Allman reviewed the current Health Savings Account funding for the employees with the Board and suggested they look at funding employees in two separate payments. The Board felt discussion was necessary with the Union president and meeting would be set up with him next week.

Village Clerk Dorothea Ciccarelli reviewed with the Board the Job positing ad for the Clerks position which would be posted in the paper. The Board also reviewed the deadline for applications and discussed conducting interviews by the beginning of the year with a hope of appointment by the first meeting of January.
